“Oh, good. I want to hear the story about Jesus, because I don’t know it very well.” These words were spoken by an eight-year-old boy at our kids Christmas party in December. At the end of the story, several children asked questions about why Jesus came to earth and “Didn’t he come back to life or something?” Amy was blessed to be able to share the story of Christ’s birth and to respond to their questions about the death and resurrection of Jesus! Praise God from whom all blessings flow! Please continue to pray for the seeds that were planted that day. We had about 15 kids, and most of them had never heard the Gospel story.

Our children’s club meets once a month and includes an activity, games, snack and a story. We just started it this year and have been encouraged to see it is well-attended and we always have kids that don’t normally go to church. Please pray that God would use this ministry to reach kids, parents and families with the Gospel.

We pray God will richly bless you and your ministries as you seek to make Him known to those around you. May our churches be edified and walk in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, and be multiplied in 2019! (Acts 9:31)
