The Power of God to Salvation

In our last two letters we asked you to pray for “S” as she needed to accept God’s gift of salvation. We are thrilled to report that Sara recently gave her life to Christ and the change in her was immediate! Praise the Lord! In fact, we noticed a difference in her before she even told us about her salvation experience. In her own words, “I am not an orphan. I am not alone. I am God’s child. He is my Dad.” She also expressed, “I just want to share with everyone I know this peace, love and joy He has put in my heart.” Continue to pray that her three precious children would also put their trust in Christ.

Making Disciples & Baptizing Them

Thank the Lord for the four people who desire to follow Him in baptism! We are currently trying to plan a baptismal service somewhere outdoors for the end of June. (One of our new challenges now that we do not have our own facility anymore.) Please continue to pray for the logistics of this service, as well as for many other souls who are so close to salvation at this time! We are so amazed and grateful that God allows us to witness Him at work! We are so thankful for your faithful prayer and financial support that allows us to live and minister here in France.

For His glory,

Lance, Amy, Kirianna, Aliyah, Cannon & Kayne Auterson
